Students who have not completed Obligations must enrol in Trusts A. Please contact the Student Centre to arrange this enrolment.

* Students who have not completed Obligations must enrol in Property A. Please contact the Student Centre to arrange this enrolment.

These subjects have a quota imposed. Enrolment in these subjects will be limited to the cohort listed.

Evidence and Proof will be offered only in Semester 1 2010. It will NOT be offered in summer 2010.

For all other subjects, students will be strongly advised to enrol in their cohort unless there is a compelling reason to vary the enrolment plan.

Please consult the course Planning Page to find your cohorts Course Plan

Last time offered subjects: The Law School will offer alternative arrangements each semester to accommodate students who have failed a compulsory or quasi-compulsory subject being offered for the final time. This is subject to University Statute 11.5 Unsatisfactory Progress.

Students are encouraged to make an appointment to speak with a student adviser in the Melbourne Law School Student Centre on the Mezzanine Level of the Melbourne Law School (Tel: +61 3 8344 4475 or email law-studentcentre@unimelb.edu.au) for advice on any matter that might impact upon normal course progression such as exchanges, particularly in other courses.
